After over 60 years as skiing's best kept secret, Big Mountain has changed its name to Whitefish Mountain Resort in honor of the laid-back town of Whitefish, Montana. This is one of the largest resorts in North America, with over 3,000 skiable acres, 94 marked trails, bowl and tree skiing, 3 terrain parks, summit elevation of 6,817, an average annual snowfall of 300" and plenty of elbow room. It is the perfect playground for skiers of all abilities (15% beginner, 35% intermediate, 40% advanced, 10% expert). The Whitefish region and Glacier National Park are considered the recreational capital of Montana, offering not only world-class skiing and boarding, but also snowmobiling, dog sledding, Nordic trails, snow shoeing, cat skiing, ice skating and more. The classic western town of Whitefish, with its award-winning restaurants and unique shops and galleries, is a short 11 mile shuttle ride from the mountain village and has been called by Skiing Magazine "quite possibly the least snooty ski town on the entire continent". Come join OSC and the Florida Ski Council as we celebrate over 60 years of skiing at the "The Best Undiscovered Resort in North America" by Skiing Magazine. Ski the Fish!!
